

Benchmark Achievement Level Descriptors

Overview and Purpose

The development of Achievement Level Descriptors (ALDs) is a critical step in communicating student performance in terms of levels or categories of performance on any standardized assessment. For Minnesota Comprehensive Assessments (MCAs), ALDs are developed in collaboration with educators during the first year of full implementation. The ALDs provide a description of grade-level student performance on MCAs for each of the achievement levels of Exceeds the Standards, Meets the Standards, Partially Meets the Standards, and Does Not Meet the Standards. These statements are included on a student's MCA score report to aid families in score interpretation. More detail regarding the development of the MCA Achievement Level Descriptors is on Testing 1, 2, 3.

Over the years, educators have requested more specific descriptions of the knowledge, skills and abilities of students who typically score in each of the different MCA achievement levels beyond what the traditional ALDs offer. In response to this need, Minnesota Department of Education (MDE) staff collaborated to outline more specific descriptions, the Benchmark ALDs for Mathematics and Reading. The purpose of Benchmark ALDs is to

1. promote equity for all students across the state by clarifying expected learning outcomes for instruction and local assessment of Minnesota Academic Standards in Reading and Mathematics; and
2. support teachers' analysis of the depth of their curriculum, instruction and classroom assessments.

The Mathematics and Reading Benchmark ALDs were developed by

- reviewing test questions and test data for all operational MCA III questions, in many cases 800–1,000 questions per grade;
- grouping items within each benchmark based on student performance on the items relative to their overall performance on the MCAs; and
- reviewing the achievement level groupings of questions within each benchmark for commonalities in the skills, understanding and context needed to correctly answer the items. Each Benchmark ALD describes some of the skills typically demonstrated by students whose overall performance on the MCAs is at that achievement level. These skills are in addition to the descriptions at the lower achievement levels.

Released Examples

Where possible, released examples that illustrate skills described in the benchmark and achievement level are listed in the document. To view examples, click on “Released Example” in the Benchmark ALD tables or go to the Minnesota Question Tool (https://public.education.mn.gov/nqt/). Once at the Minnesota Question Tool (MQT) site, you can enter or copy and paste the released example identification number into the “Search by Question ID” field. Note that within the MQT you can find additional questions that are aligned to the academic standards but are not specifically listed in the Benchmark ALD tables.

Example items are not currently available for all benchmarks and achievement levels in the Benchmark ALD tables. MDE will update the document as more released examples become available.

Training Module

Watch the training module to learn how to use the Benchmark ALDs to evaluate the rigor of classroom assessments and instructional materials: <https://testing123.education.mn.gov/test/plan/success/>.

This module will help educators understand how the Benchmark ALDs can be used to facilitate the learning outcomes defined in the Minnesota K–12 Academic Standards in Mathematics and Reading and to evaluate the rigor of classroom assessment and instruction.

Reading-Specific Background

On the MCA, readers are tasked to use skills to comprehend texts characterized by increasing levels of sophistication, nuance and abstraction within and across grades. As such, the measurement of reading comprehension is closely connected to different levels of text complexity with varying degrees of explicit and implicit textual evidence. Explicit textual evidence is stated directly or literally; readers are not required to make inferences and judgments based on nonliteral text in order to arrive at meaning. Implicit textual evidence requires readers to make inferences and judgments based on nonliteral text to arrive at meaning. As text complexity levels and more sophisticated implicit textual evidence increase, comprehension skills become more granular and challenging.

Generally, students who score in the Does Not Meet or Partially Meets achievement categories may successfully comprehend either portions of or entire texts that range from low to moderate levels of complexity. Students who score in the Meets or Exceeds categories can also comprehend portions of or entire texts from a wider range of text complexity, including high levels.

The concepts of text complexity, text-based comprehension questions and students’ ability to correctly answer such questions interact in various ways. For example, it is difficult to ask cognitively challenging questions about a low complexity text. However, if a higher complexity text contains direct or literal language and context (explicit text), some less complicated questions can be asked. Students who score in the Does Not Meet or Partially Meets categories may be able to correctly answer some questions about less complex text and less complicated questions about more challenging text. Students who score in the Meets or Exceeds categories may be able to correctly answer many questions about text from all text complexity levels.

More information about text complexity is available in Minnesota K-12 Academic Standards in English Language Arts \(2010\), pages 45 and 46 (grades K–5) and pages 78 and 79 (grades 6–12).

Grade 5 Reading Benchmark Achievement Level Descriptors

Key Ideas and Details: Standards 1, 2, and 3

Standard 1

Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.

Benchmark	Does Not Meet the Standards When interacting with literature and informational text, students at this achievement level generally demonstrate the following skills inconsistently and with minimal accuracy.	Partially Meets the Standards When interacting with literature and informational text, students at this achievement level generally demonstrate the following skills with limited consistency and accuracy.	Meets the Standards When interacting with literature and informational text, students at this achievement level generally demonstrate the following skills with consistency and accuracy.	Exceeds the Standards When interacting with literature and informational text, students at this achievement level generally demonstrate the following skills with a high degree of consistency and accuracy.
Literature 5.1.1.1 Quote accurately from a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.	Citing Textual Evidence: Locate textual evidence in explicit text. Relevant Details: Recall details from text. Cause/Effect Relationships: Identify a cause or an effect in explicit text.	Citing Textual Evidence: Use textual evidence from text to make meaning. Use explicit textual evidence to make logical conclusions. Relevant Details: Identify key details related to text.	Citing Textual Evidence: Use implicit textual evidence to justify interpretations of meaning. Use implicit textual evidence to quote accurately and make logical conclusions.	Citing Textual Evidence: Draw logical conclusions from abstract textual evidence. Relevant Details: Identify specific details to support conclusions from text and draw logical conclusions from text.

Exceeds the Standards When interacting with literature and informational text, students at this achievement level generally demonstrate the following skills with a high degree of consistency and accuracy.
Literature 5.1.2.2 Determine a theme of a story, drama, or poem from details in the text, including how characters in a story or drama respond to challenges or how the speaker in a poem reflects upon a topic; summarize the text.	Theme: Identify directly stated theme in explicit text. Central Idea: Locate the central idea of an entire text (explicit). Summary: Retell basic events of explicit text. Main Idea: Locate explicit main idea from a section of explicit text or text as a whole.	Theme: Identify theme within explicit text. Central Idea: State the central idea of an entire text (explicit). Summary: Retell basic events from explicit and implicit text. Main Idea: State a main idea and a topic from a section of explicit text or text as a whole.	Theme: Distinguish a theme within implicit text. Central Idea: Determine the implicit central idea of an entire text or section. Summary: Summarize from a section of text or text as a whole. Main Idea: Summarize a main idea and a topic from a section of implicit text or text as a whole.	Theme: Analyze a theme among a variety of texts. Central Idea: Analyze the central idea of an entire text across text types. Summary: Summarize and/or paraphrase text from a section of text or text as a whole (e.g., main idea, similarities/differences among ideas, plot, theme).

Exceeds the Standards When interacting with literature and informational text, students at this achievement level generally demonstrate the following skills with a high degree of consistency and accuracy.
Literature 5.1.3.3 Compare and contrast two or more characters, settings, or events in a story or drama, drawing on specific details in the text (e.g., how characters interact).	Literary Elements: Identify literary elements (e.g., plot, characterization, theme). Literary Terms: Identify literary terms (e.g., protagonist, antagonist). Characterization: Identify basic character traits.	Literary Elements: Identify literary elements (e.g., plot, characterization, theme). Understand literary elements in relation to one another (e.g., how setting impacts conflict, how sequence of events shapes resolution, how setting and plot create mood).	Literary Elements: Distinguish among literary elements (e.g., plot, characterization, theme). Characterization: Differentiate methods of characterization (e.g., dialogue, appearance, behavior, impact of setting, prediction of future actions, motivations, actions, dialogue/speech).	Literary Elements: Analyze literary elements; also in relation to one another; analyze point of view. Characterization: Analyze methods of characterization; compare and contrast individuals and ideas based on implicit text.

Informational Text 5.2.3.3 Explain the relationships or interactions between two or more individuals, events, ideas, or concepts in a historical, scientific, or technical text based on specific information in the text.	Sequence of Events: Identify basic linear sequences of events. Motivation: Identify basic motivations (actions, speech, thoughts). Cause and Effect Relationships: Locate cause and effect relationships. Identify the impact of an individual, an event, an idea, or a concept.	Sequence of Events: Sequence basic events and steps in a process. Motivation: Identify character motivations in implicit text. Cause and Effect Relationships: Use text evidence to understand cause/effect relationships.	Sequence of Events: Sequence events and/or steps in a process. Motivation: Differentiate methods of character motivation. Cause and Effect Relationships: Use text evidence to understand cause/effect relationships; use text evidence to assess the impact of an individual, an event, an idea, or a concept in a text. Released Example: 450754	Sequence of Events: Sequence events and steps in a process. Motivation: Analyze methods of character motivation.
